

Student Success Fee Academic Related Programs (SSP ARP) Approved Allocations for Spring 2017

College	File Name	Student Name	Proposal Name	Description	ORIGINAL Proposal Amount	APPROVED Proposal Amount	Reason for Change from Original Budget Request / Comments
ALL	ALL_003	Kathy Nguyen	APAHE Annual Conference, 2017	20 students to attend Asian Pacific Americans in Higher Education conference in April 2017.	$ 16,020.50	$ 8,026.00	Final project to be funded so only able to partially fund project
ALL	ALL_006	Ketan Patel	Graduate Student Travel Fund	Travel fund for at least 25 graduate students.	$ 25,000.00	$ 25,000.00
ALL	ALL_017	Daisy Santana	Defamation: A Courtroom Drama Addressing Modern Social Issues	Support to host the play, "Defamation," and a post-play discussion about social issues.	$ 6,600.00	$ 6,600.00
ALL	ALL_025	Andrea Padilla and David Riley	Rock-Pebbles-Stone: And interdisciplinary perspective through time, space, and material	2 public lectures and 2 class visits by lecturers about natural geomaterials from multiple perspectives	$ 4,600.00	$ 4,600.00
BUS	BUS_002	Travis Doderlein	Society for Human Resource management HR Case Competition and Career Summit	Support 14 HR management students to attend the 2017 West Regional Society for Human Resource Management Case Competition and Career Summit.	$ 10,071.00	$ 10,071.00
BUS	BUS_004	Matthew Covert	Charles W. Lamden School of Accountancy Spring Awards Banquet	Host the Spring Awards Banquet for the Charles W. Lamden School of Accountancy.	$ 2,000.00	$ 1,500.00	Flowers ($500) removed from Budget
BUS	BUS_006	Christian McGlade	Next Generation Summit	A 1-day lecture and workshop series with 4-6 successful entrepreneurs meant to inspire students with new business and creative insights and help them develop skills to launch their own businesses in the future.	$ 4,299.75	$ 4,300.00
BUS	BUS_014	Bonnie Draxler	3rd annual SDSU sports business summit	A sports & business oriented conference with a panel of 8-10 guest speakers from the sports industry meant to be a learning and networking opportunity for students interested in sports-related careers.	$ 3,400.00	$ 3,150.00	Thank you gifts ($250) removed from Budget
BUS	BUS_018	Eric Harrison	International Business Society members attend the International Business Career Conference	8 students will attend the International Business Career Conference in Saint Louis to learn more about international career opportunities.	$ 4,960.00	$ 4,960.00
CAL	CAL_003	Ninveh Shamoon	Archaeological field school at the Nate Harrison site at Palomar Mountain	25 students will attend this archeological field school in the Spring of 2017 to excavate, survey, map and analyze artifacts at the Nate Harrison site, the cabin site of the first African-American homestead in the San Diego region.	$ 22,660.00	$ 22,660.00	Tools/equipment (non-consumables) purchased with SSF funds are university property and must be returned to the College upon completion of project
CAL	CAL_004	Hilary Moore	Experimental Archaeology Activity	An educational workshop for a group of 15-20 students where attendees will conduct experiments and learn more about how to distinguish different traces left on stone tools and animal bones.	$ 415.00	$ 415.00
CAL	CAL_005	Hilary Moore	Four Field Focus Anthropology Workshops	A series of 4 workshops for groups of 20-30 students aimed at providing attendees with an opportunity to connect and build professional networks and develop practical, technical skills for careers in Anthropology.	$ 8,240.00	$ 8,240.00
CAL	CAL_009	Ian Baecht	Bridging the academic-professional spheres in the TESOL Profession	A career workshop with 4 guest speakers intended to help 25 students in the TESOL Linguistics program learn more about how to develop professionally and gain employment within their field at the community college level.	$ 1,300.00	$ 1,300.00
CAL	CAL_011	Sean Tracy	SDSU Philosophy Student Conference: Social and Political Philosophy	A two-day conference aimed at generating philosophical discussions of contemporary political and social issues and ideas. The conference is open to all and aims to engage students, faculty and the larger San Diego community.	$ 3,100.00	$ 3,100.00
CAL	CAL_013	James Turner	Anthropology Student Associations' Speaker and Workshop Series	A speaker series representing the four sub-fields of anthropology will present current debates and field and lab methodology. 70-80 students will attend the series and have a chance to network and ask the speakers questions.	$ 5,780.00	$ 5,780.00
CAL	CAL_014	Amanda Hendrix	2017 Annual Sociology Graduate Student Committee Symposium	A student-led symposium with 3-4 guest speakers that will address the topic of social mobility as it relates to education, gender, immigration status, sexuality and ability. The symposium will be held on April 21, 2017.	$ 3,444.00	$ 3,444.00
CAL	CAL_017	Garrett Stanton	Model United Nations International Collaborative Conference & Career Fair	A three-day conference that will engage 300+ students and will focus on promoting scholarship, research, study abroad, and career guidance and educational mentoring for students interested in international careers.	$ 15,000.00	$ 15,000.00
CAL	CAL_019	Lindsey Pierce	Landmark Lecture Panel on Visual Rhetoric	A 2-guest Lecture panel that will discuss the topic of Visual Rhetoric and the influence of images and videos in communication, conflict, culture and social revolutions. The lecture panel will engage 50-60 students in dialogue and debate pertaining to this year's topic.	$ 1,450.00	$ 1,450.00
CAL	CAL_020	Jamey Keeton	The Beautiful Arts Club Guest Lecturer: GZA on Race, Globalization, and Hip-Hop	Guest lecturer, Gary Grice of Wu-Thang Clan, will present a lecture on race, globalization and hip-hop. The lecture is expected to be immensely popular among students due to Gary Grice's popularity in pop-culture and academia and will bring national-level exposure to SDSU as an institution. The event is expected to occur on April 6, 2017 and estimated to draw 1000 students.	$ 20,000.00	$ 20,000.00
CAL	CAL_021	Jamey Keeton	Classics and Humanities Guest Lecturer: Percival Everett on Race, Identity Politics and Class	A guest lecture from Professor Percival Everett on the topics of race, class, and identity. Everett is widely recognized as one of the most important novelists in contemporary USA and the lecture will likely draw close to 300 students.	$ 7,750.00	$ 7,750.00

Student Success Fee Academic Related Programs (SSP ARP) Approved Allocations for Spring 2017

College	File Name	Student Name	Proposal Name	Description	ORIGINAL Proposal Amount	APPROVED Proposal Amount	Reason for Change from Original Budget Request / Comments
CAL	CAL_024	Allen Ross	Getty Villa Guided Tour and Theater Lab Performance	Host a play of Aristophanes' "The Frogs". Free admission for up to 50 SDSU students, with a Q&A session after the performance to allow students to engage in enriching discussions about the ancient world, ancient comedy, and other topics.	$ 1,155.00	$ 1,155.00
CAL	CAL_026	Andrea Alvarado	Undergraduate Research Journal of the College of Arts and Letters (URJCAL)	Print funding for student-run annual research journal, The Undergraduate Research Journal of CAL, in preparation for the third volume, which will be published in May 2017.	$ 5,000.00	$ 5,000.00
CAL	CAL_027	Brittany Barnes	Poetic Youth Community Workshop Series	A creative-writing workshop series meant to provide SDSU students with practical teaching experience in the classroom and help connect and inspire 230-300 low-income youth to pursue a college education.	$ 4,013.00	$ 4,013.00
CAL	CAL_032	Riley Wilson	Difference and Diversity in Videogames: A conversation and Hands-on workshop with Porpentine	A guest lecture from videogame developer Porpentine, followed by a hands-on workshop will explore the relationship between digital technology, identity and self-expression.	$ 5,000.00	$ 5,000.00
CAL	CAL_034	Falisha Field	Undergraduate Geography Field Trip to Yosemite National Park	A field trip for 40 students to foster a greater appreciation of natural landscapes and how humans interact with them. The trip is meant to reinforce concepts learned in the classroom throughout the semester through participatory and experiential learning.	$ 7,680.00	$ 7,680.00
CAL	CAL_035	Liacer Wesson	El Otro Lado: Breaking Down Barriers Through Cultural Expression	A cultural and historical tour of Tijuana for 30 students and a cultural night devoted to exploring Tijuana's rich culture right here in San Diego for up to 200 students. The initiative is meant to expose students to various aspects of Tijuana's culture including live poetry, music, dance, and art.	$ 5,050.00	$ 5,050.00
CAL	CAL_036	Lauren Romano	SDSU Ceramics Project: Art and History of Presidio Ceramics	An educational trip for 25 students to visit El Presidio de Santa Barbara in order to view the exhibit and help further the students' understanding of trade in California in the early nineteenth century.	$ 8,430.00	$ 8,010.00	Faculty meals/lodging cost ($420) removed from Budget
CAL	CAL_037	Nicole Santoyo Spuehler	Aztec Student Showcase: Culture & Identity	A student showcase of art on the subject of "Culture and Identity" will feature 50 student artists. The showcase will provide students with presentation experience and networking opportunities, and increase cultural awareness and acceptance, as well as help students and audience develop critical analysis and reflective thinking skills.	$ 2,495.00	$ 2,495.00
CAL	CAL_039	Valorie Ruiz	Poetic Youth Conference	Two-day conference meant to connect SDSU students with local youth by providing creative writing workshops and networking opportunities for students interested in careers within the non-profit sector. The conference is expected to draw 150-250 participants.	$ 12,089.00	$ 12,089.00	SSF will not fund transportation vouchers for community; this must be funded from another funding source
CAL	CAL_041	Bianca Herrera	International Women's Day March	55 students will participate in a March and attend a number of lectures and talks that will explore feminist issues.	$ 2,000.00	$ 2,000.00
EDU	EDU_001	Jade McMahan	Valuing Diversity; A Cultural Awareness Training Series	A series of workshop trainings meant to raise cultural awareness and provide students with the necessary skills to be successful leaders in a multicultural society.	$ 23,500.00	$ 23,500.00
EDU	EDU_004	Amanda Keller	School to Prison Pipeline	A guest presentation by Justin Arnold on the subject of restorative justice and bring a clearer understanding on the complex issues surrounding juvenile and criminal justice systems. The presentation is expected to draw 350 students.	$ 2,600.00	$ 2,600.00
EDU	EDU_006	Carolina Rasario Mozee	Second Annual Post-Modern Social Justice Symposium	Support for second annual Post Modern Social Justice Symposium to bring together students, community members and leading experts in areas of social justice research and education to critically analyze issues and create actions needed to advance social justice awareness at SDSU.	$ 7,450.00	$ 7,450.00
EDU	EDU_009	Mikaila Constable	Honoring their lifestories: Experiencing Disabilities through GS 420 presenters	A 15-week undergraduate level course for 844 students on the subject of disability and society. Every class period will be led by an individual guest speaker who shares their story about their own disability experience.	$ 3,000.00	$ 3,000.00
EDU	EDU_013	Melissa Vang	Asian Diaspora in Higher Education Conference	A conference meant to raise awareness about the diversity within the Asian American population, particularly in higher education. The conference is open to all students, faculty, staff, and scholars.	$ 15,500.00	$ 10,500.00	Rental of Montezuma Hall reduced from $10,000 to $5,000
EDU	EDU_015	Addie Honeycutt	Trauma-Informed Care Training	Training opportunities for SDSU students, faculty, staff and community members to develop skills in restorative practices to guide students who have been affected by trauma. Trainings will equip participants with knowledge about the impact of trauma across life span and self-care practices.	$ 1,820.00	$ 1,820.00

Student Success Fee Academic Related Programs (SSP ARP) Approved Allocations for Spring 2017

College	File Name	Student Name	Proposal Name	Description	ORIGINAL Proposal Amount	APPROVED Proposal Amount	Reason for Change from Original Budget Request / Comments
EDU	EDU_017	Nick Wright	Customized Employment Workshop	One-day workshop on the topic of customized employment for people with disabilities that will explore rehabilitation counseling, career counseling, workforce development, and special education. Up to 120 students are expected to participate.	$ 3,965.00	$ 3,965.00
EDU	EDU_018	Arturo Navarro	The 3rd Annual Voice Your Language Forum	Support for 3rd Annual Voice Your Language Forum, which will raise critical awareness about the value of multilingual education.	$ 11,750.00	$ 11,750.00
ENG	ENG_001	Branden Elam	Society of Automotive Engineers - Aztec Baja	Support for Society of Automotive Engineers (Aztec Baja) to design, build and race a 10hp mini Baja vehicle as part of a competition. Close to 50 students will apply theoretical engineering knowledge and gain hands-on experience in design and fabrication, as well as gain valuable management and leadership experience.	$ 48,916.42	$ 48,916.00	Tools/equipment (non-consumables) purchased with SSF funds are university property and must be returned to the College upon completion of project
ENG	ENG_002	Nicholas Fritzier	SDSU Design Build Fly	Funds to design an experimental RC aircraft and compete in the international Cessna/Raytheon competition and provide students with a real-world aircraft design experience and validate their analytical studies.	$ 36,000.00	$ 36,000.00	Tools/equipment (non-consumables) purchased with SSF funds are university property and must be returned to the College upon completion of project
ENG	ENG_006	Audrey Le Reverend	American Water Works Association Spring Conference 2017	8-10 students will attend the American Water Works Association's spring conference in Anaheim from April 10-13, 2016. Students will learn from industry professionals about potential solutions for the future of water in the southwest.	$ 3,130.00	$ 3,130.00
ENG	ENG_007	Jose Rafael Castro	Participation in the ASCE Pacific Southwest Conference	Support for 100 students studying civil, environmental, construction and other engineering-related fields to allow them to compete in 4 events at the 2017 ASCE Pacific Southwest Conference.	$ 38,300.00	$ 38,100.00	Shirts ($200) removed from Budget
ENG	ENG_008	Alexandria Virgen	San Diego State University Rocket Project: Galactic Aztec Heavy and Project Icarus	Funding for the Rocket Project which will allow over 120 students from Engineering, Science, and Business schools to gain relevant practical learning experience and design, test, and launch 3 different rockets in the 2016-2017 academic year.	$ 62,000.00	$ 62,000.00	Tools/equipment (non-consumables) purchased with SSF funds are university property and must be returned to the College upon completion of project
ENG	ENG_012	Alven Eusantos	Engineering Olympics Event Proposal	An "Engineering Olympics" event to showcase the various opportunities available within the engineering field and to promote the study of engineering to local high school students. The event will involve over 60 SDSU students and close to 200 high school students from San Diego county.	$ 5,300.00	$ 5,300.00
ENG	ENG_014	Felipe Jared Guerrero Moreno	SDSU Mechatronics Club	Support for a multidisciplinary team of 50 students to design and build a technologically advanced Autonomous Underwater Vehicle and to compete at the 20th Annual Office of Naval Research and Autonomous Unmanned Vehicle Systems International Robosub Competition. The SDSU team won the championship at this competition in 2015.	$ 40,000.00	$ 40,000.00
ENG	ENG_026	Shane Witsell	SDSU Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers Student Branch	Funding for 3 Electronics and Electrical Engineering projects that will allow 50-60 students to construct a robot, build an electrical-powered boat and create cutting edge software for parking capacity estimates. Students will also compete in various IEEE competitions.	$ 20,000.00	$ 20,000.00
ENG	ENG_027	Jose Mugerza	Associated Schools of Construction Region 6 and & 2017 Student Competition	40 students will travel and compete in the The Associated Schools of Construction (ASC) "Reno" Competition in February 2017.	$ 20,195.30	$ 20,195.00
HHS	HHS_002	Amanda Kaae	Excellence in Undergraduate Research	A Student Research Symposium will allow 10 undergraduate students from the School of Speech, Language and Hearing Sciences to present their individual research and promote research in the field, as well as encourage other students in the discipline to present their work.	$ 4,900.00	$ 4,900.00
HHS	HHS_003	Naguine Bensimon Tree	Healing Holistically: A Mind-Body Approach to Client Care	A series of hands-on workshops featuring leaders in the health and education fields that will explore the integration of alternative practices such as yoga and Myofascial Release Approach into traditional treatment programs. Participants will gain valuable skills and the reasoning and validity behind these alternative tools and how to incorporate them into their work.	$ 8,060.00	$ 8,060.00
HHS	HHS_004	Alexandria Lithgow	Speech, Language, and Hearing Sciences Guest Speaker Event	Host a speaker series event for undergraduate and graduate Health and Human Services students. Speakers will present their leading scientific and clinical research and students will gain clinically relevant knowledge and new insights into certain aspects of the field that are not covered in courses or textbooks.	$ 1,500.00	$ 1,500.00
HHS	HHS_005	Brittany Vlosich	American Academy of Audiology: Audiology Now 2017 Conference	Support for 20 Doctoral students to attend the annual Audiology NOW conference in Indianapolis and gain insights into the newest innovations in the field of Audiology involving technology, treatment options, counseling methods and legislative events.	$ 10,202.00	$ 10,202.00

Student Success Fee Academic Related Programs (SSP ARP) Approved Allocations for Spring 2017

College	File Name	Student Name	Proposal Name	Description	ORIGINAL Proposal Amount	APPROVED Proposal Amount	Reason for Change from Original Budget Request / Comments
HHS	HHS_007	Francis Floresca	GSPH Student Professional Development and Success Symposium	Funding for 3 events to allow students to showcase their skills and academic talent in the field of public health and leadership. The events include a workshop series, an academic competition and a Student Success Symposium. Close to 100 students are expected to benefit from the combination of the three events.	$ 6,700.00	$ 6,700.00
HHS	HHS_008	Jennifer M. Seneor	Neurobiological and Trauma-Informed Approaches to Empowerment and Resilience: Resilience Film Screening	Host a screening of the film 'Resilience: The Biology of Stress and the Science of Hope' on SDSU campus and feature a guest speaker, Dr. Vincent Felitti. The purpose so to inform the audience about the impacts of childhood experiences on adult health and well-being. The event will occur on April 28, 2017 and over 300 students are expected to be in the audience.	$ 5,750.00	$ 5,750.00
HHS	HHS_009	Victoria Kapper	SDSU School of Social Work All School Day	Host an "All School Day" event to provide 250-300 participating social work students, faculty and staff with an intensive academic and experiential process where they will focus on their own learning and development to increase their competencies in the social justice arena.	$ 4,000.00	$ 4,000.00
HHS	HHS_011	Francis Floresca	Graduate School of Public Health - Speaker Series	A three-part series where SDSU Graduate School of Public Health alumni and professionals related to issues of public health will discuss their work. Students will learn about the field, current research, and career opportunities in public health. More than 400 students, faculty, alumni and community partners are expected to attend the series.	$ 60,800.00	$ 60,800.00
HHS	HHS_012	Chelsea Geyer	Impacting Future School Based Professionals - 20th Annual National School Social Work Association Conference 2017	10 students and 1 faculty to attend the 20th Annual National School of Social Work Association of America Conference in San Diego in March 2017. The conference will give the attendees an opportunity for growth and education on relevant issues, best practices, skills and intervention strategies from leaders in the field of school-based social work. Students will also produce a post-conference workshop for future school based professionals in April 2017.	$ 2,590.00	$ 2,320.00	Faculty registration cost ($270) removed from Budget
HHS	HHS_014	Kelsey O'Brien	Workplace Inclusivity for the LGBTQIA Community	A speakers event to educate SDSU students and community members on ways the LGBTQ community can prepare themselves for the challenges in the workplace, and how allies can help create workplaces that are inclusive. The event is planned for February 10, 2017 and is expected to draw more than 300 participants.	$ 2,212.00	$ 2,212.00
HHS	HHS_017	Fathiya Abdi	Public Health Week campaign	A week-long Public Health campaign that will feature different Public Health-related events and is intended to benefit the entire SDSU campus and community through interactive activities and education. The campaign is scheduled for the week of April 3rd-7th, 2017.	$ 10,685.00	$ 10,685.00
HHS	HHS_019	Gabriela Garcia Presa	Binational Social Work Conference: Socio Political Context of the US-Mexico Border	A bi-national student-led Social Work Conference that will focus on the socio-political context of the US-Mexico border. The conference will cultivate partnerships, advocate for social justice and prepare students for work on the international level. Close to 150 students are expected to attend.	$ 33,729.00	$ 33,729.00
HHS	HHS_020	Emily Tayour	American Physical Therapy Association Combined Sections Meeting	Support 60 students in attending the American Physical Therapy Association's Combined Sections Meeting, where the students will present abstracts in the sports physical therapy, women's health and federal sections.	$ 29,400.00	$ 29,400.00
HHS	HHS_021	Nicole Arenz	SDSU Cancer Speaker Series	Support three presentations by national experts in cancer health disparities research and promote cancer research at SDSU. The series will also offer a rich student engagement experience to network with professionals and foster cancer research connections.	$ 15,825.00	$ 15,825.00
HHS	HHS_022	Claire Norberg	San Diego Lessons from abroad, study abroad returnee conference	Support for "Lessons From Abroad" conference to allow students who studied abroad to process their transformative experiences and share their knowledge and insights gained abroad with the larger SDSU and San Diego community in a professional conference setting.	$ 15,280.00	$ 15,280.00
HHS	HHS_023	Shannon Martensen	PPGA: SDSU presents International Women's Day 2017 Guest Speaker Panel	Host a panel discussion on International Women's Day which will cover various issues related to women's health and experience, with an emphasis on reproductive justice. Attendants will also learn about reproductive health care options available to them and receive resources on body positivity and healthy sexuality.	$ 17,000.00	$ 17,000.00

Student Success Fee Academic Related Programs (SSP ARP) Approved Allocations for Spring 2017

College	File Name	Student Name	Proposal Name	Description	ORIGINAL Proposal Amount	APPROVED Proposal Amount	Reason for Change from Original Budget Request / Comments
HHS	HHS_024	Natalie Sullivan	Speech, Language, and Hearing Awareness and Information Day (SAID)	A student-led symposium on the topic of communication disorders and treatment approaches. The event is expected to draw 250 attendees and aims to provide individuals diagnosed with communication disorders to learn more about support and resource opportunities that are available to them within the San Diego community and provide students with valuable knowledge and gain practical skills.	$ 3,050.00	$ 3,050.00
HHS	HHS_025	Morgan Gilfillan	Future Athletic Trainers' Society Takes on FWATA	Funding for 68 students to attend the Far West Athletic Trainer's Association annual meeting and clinical symposium and gain new insights on new injury findings, updated position statements, and current research on best medical practice.	$ 8,840.00	$ 8,840.00
PSFA	PSFA_001	Gerald Eastwood	The Art/Crime Archive Lecture Series: Cultural Criminology at SDSU	A three-part lecture series to engage SDSU students in critical thinking about the overlap between criminal art and creative crime. Students will learn, discuss, reflect and debate on intellectually challenging ideas about art, culture, and crime.	$ 9,000.00	$ 9,000.00
PSFA	PSFA_003	Michale Jeffs	"Monument Shores" Surfing in Motion Documentary Film	A documentary film discussing the influence that surfing has had locally, nationally and internationally. The purpose is to address the history of surfing culture and capture the stories of some of La Jolla's oldest surfers on film to ensure their stories are preserved.	$ 4,982.00	$ 4,982.00
PSFA	PSFA_005	Jordan Werth	MESA goes to LA - LA trip 2017	Support the Meetings and Events Student Association trip for 20 students to travel to LA and expose students to the real-world hospitality industry. The students will tour six different venues ranging from restaurants to hotels and large-scale arenas.	$ 3,021.00	$ 3,021.00
PSFA	PSFA_011	Kevin Hernandez	San Diego Guitar Festival 2017	The festival is expected to draw 250 music students and provide them with education and professional work-related experiences. The festival will feature lecture demonstrations on technique, literature and pedagogy related to the guitar.	$ 14,500.00	$ 14,500.00
PSFA	PSFA_012	Shannon Mitten	National Society for Minorities in Hospitality National Conference	Support 40 Hospitality and Tourism Management students to attend the National Society for Minorities in Hospitality Conference in Jacksonville, Florida. The main goal is to allow students to network and build relationships with leaders in the industry.	$ 11,570.00	$ 11,570.00
PSFA	PSFA_014	Cathy Nguyen	The Future of Design in Education: SDSU Design Week	A week-long event meant to bring together professionals, educators and students of diverse disciplines to collaborate on new ideas in the field of design. The event will include guest lectures, workshops, a panel discussion and an exhibit.	$ 10,000.00	$ 9,500.00	Food items ($500) removed from Budget
PSFA	PSFA_015	Eleanor Garcia Mazzini	Visiting Scholar Lecture for School of Art and Design Open Studios Event	A public guest lecture by David Pagel on the topic of contemporary art. Mr. Pagel will also provide studio visits to current SoAD graduate students to give his expert, one-on-one feedback on student work in Painting, Printmaking, Sculpture and media. The event is expected to benefit 600 SDSU School of Art and Design students.	$ 2,422.00	$ 2,422.00
PSFA	PSFA_016	Quinn Liu & Lesi Mei	Bravo! International Music Academy Homecoming Fest	The Bravo! International Music Academy (BIMA) has created a special SDSU extension program and will bring 5 international guest teaching artists to SDSU. The event will also include a 1-week "Homecoming Fest" with concerts, rehearsals and workshops. Close to 1000 music and non-music students will benefit from this event.	$ 26,800.00	$ 26,800.00
PSFA	PSFA_017	Malcolm Jones	SDSU Jazz Collective CD Project	A collaborative recording session project between Jazz Studies and Recording Technology & Audio Design programs. The end result will be a professionally produced CD featuring 74 SDSU students as well as alumni and a local guest artist. The project will provide students with valuable real world studio experience and a powerful resume builder.	$ 19,786.00	$ 19,786.00
PSFA	PSFA_020	Raiyah Harris	Project Rebound Student Alliance	A two-day collaborative workshop and guest lecture series which will discuss the opportunities and challenges of teaching and learning alongside incarcerated and formerly incarcerated students at SDSU. The series will serve to build and strengthen collaborative networks between the SDSU community, community college partners, law enforcement, and others. The lectures and workshops are expected to draw over 500 students.	$ 4,000.00	$ 4,000.00
PSFA	PSFA_021	Eric Navarro	Guest Artists Residency	Support to bring two dance artists, each for 1 week, to share their expertise with dance majors, hold open rehearsals and create work with a select group of students. Over 230 students will benefit from this artist guest-lecture project.	$ 18,500.00	$ 18,500.00	Costumes (non-consumables) purchased with SSF funds are university property and must be returned to the College upon completion of project

Student Success Fee Academic Related Programs (SSP ARP) Approved Allocations for Spring 2017

College	File Name	Student Name	Proposal Name	Description	ORIGINAL Proposal Amount	APPROVED Proposal Amount	Reason for Change from Original Budget Request / Comments
PSFA	PSFA_024	Rita Murphy	Campanile Music Festival	Support the Campanile Music Festival and bring visiting artists to SDSU for one-week residencies, which include performances and direct interaction with music students. Students are also welcome to attend open rehearsals, masterclasses and seminars. The program benefits 312 music majors at SDSU.	$ 14,600.00	$ 14,600.00
PSFA	PSFA_030	Taylor Hardie	First Fridays at the Studio Theater	Support for monthly series of guest artist master classes and public lectures which brings together professional Dance Artists to SDSU and provide students the opportunity to interact and engage with accomplished Dancers working in a range of dance styles.	$ 2,342.40	$ 2,342.00
PSFA	PSFA_034	Samantha Ledesma	The Left of Boom Proactive Threat Mitigation Strategies Conference	Support for 14 SDSU students to attend the annual Left of Boom Proactive Threat Mitigation Strategies Conference. Student attendees will benefit through collaboration with professionals, explore more about their major's capabilities in a real-world application, and bring back knowledge to the SDSU community.	$ 4,550.00	$ 4,550.00
PSFA	PSFA_037	Colleen Santamaria	School of Communication Graduate Student Organization Events	Provide support for 3 events benefiting the School of Communication. Specifically, aid student participation in the Wester State Communication Association conference in the Spring 2017 semester, help provide a guest speaker colloquium series for students at SDSU, and host an alumni mixer to help students network with professionals.	$ 6,000.00	$ 6,000.00
SCI	SCI_004	Matt Ramsey	Catch the Wave to Success Pre-Health Conference	Support a multi-disciplinary conference to help educate and better prepare pre-health students for their future health careers. The conference consists of workshops, speakers, student and admissions panels, a graduate school and a volunteer fair for students to explore their interests.	$ 9,000.00	$ 9,000.00
SCI	SCI_018	Nicole Fenton	American Association of Petroleum Geologists' annual Distinguished Lecture Program	A lecture by Dr. Pete Rose on the topic of ethics in geoscience. Dr. Rose will share his experiences in the petroleum industry with scientific bias. The lecture will be followed by an informal seminar or Q&A with students. The lecture would benefit students studying geology, geography, physics, biology, chemistry, engineering, mathematics, economics, sociology and others. It is expected to draw more than 250 attendants.	$ 1,110.00	$ 1,110.00
					$ 965,135.37	$ 950,000.00	