

Temporary Part-Time Faculty

Interior Design Program

School of Art + Design, SDSU

The School of Art and Design seeks applications for a temporary part-time faculty position in the Interior Design area. This would be for one year starting in the Fall semester 2016. The class, Art 451 Residential Interior Design, is concerned with the survey, analysis and conceptual basis of residential interiors with an emphasis on materials, equipment, and detailing. Proven experience in the area of residential planning and interior design, California Building Code (CBC), are required. Demonstrated knowledge and skills for digital technology including AutoCAD, Revit, Sketchup, Photoshop, and InDesign are preferred. University-level teaching experience is preferred. Interior designer license holder preferred. LEED AP (ID+C) preferred.

SDSU is a large, diverse, urban university and Hispanic-Serving Institution with a commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusive excellence. Our campus community is diverse in many ways, including race, religion, color, sex, age, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, pregnancy, medical condition, and covered veteran status. We strive to build and sustain a welcoming environment for all. SDSU is seeking applicants with demonstrated experience in and/or commitment to teaching and working effectively with individuals from diverse backgrounds and members of underrepresented groups.

Materials to be Submitted: Interested parties should submit a letter of application which indicates areas of specialization, curriculum vitae, design portfolio, names of three references (do not send letters of recommendation) and other pertinent background information. If your professional portfolio is included, please identify your specific role in the projects. Without the description of involvement, we are unable to review it. The position is open until filled. We will start the review of applications on June 27, 2016.
