Thank you for your generous gift to San Diego State University!

Your gift to San Diego State University is tax deductible as defined by law. The University will mail you an official tax receipt in January after the close of the calendar year. SDSU appreciates the support it receives from faculty and staff. Often, our gratitude is expressed by listing donors' names in selected university publications. Should you wish that your name not appear on such lists, please notify University Development at (619) 594-3465.
