

SAN DIEGO STATE UNIVERSITY

INVITES YOUR INTEREST IN THE
THE POSITION OF

ASSOCIATE
DEAN OF PROFESSIONAL
AND INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

THE ASSOCIATE DEAN OF PROFESSIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

San Diego State University (SDSU) is seeking an innovative and energetic academic leader to serve as Associate Dean of the College of Professional and International Education within the College of Extended Studies (CES).

We seek a highly motivated individual with an exemplary track record who can provide vision, innovation and leadership to build on the successes across the College. The mission of CES is "To provide innovative education and training programs that enhance careers and transform lives and organizations across the globe." CES serves as a principal University liaison with the greater San Diego community and provides a wide variety of degree and certificate programs as well as credit and noncredit educational experiences designed to fit the needs and expectations of working adults and other non-traditional learners.

CES has been a leader in continuing education for more than 40 years, reaching out to San Diego, the nation, and the world with a wide variety of lifelong learning opportunities. The college has more than 50 certificate programs for career advancement, as well as online programs ranging from single courses, to certificate programs and degrees. CES offers Master's degree programs in business administration, counseling, education, health, hospitality and tourism, science, and sports management. CES also provides high courses for students who are age 50 and better through the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at SDSU. Our American Language Institute has a world-renowned ESL instruction, and CES also operates SDSU's Open University program that provides access to SDSU courses to everyone in the community.

For more information regarding the College of Extended Studies, please click here.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Advanced degree in social science, education, business, law, or humanities, plus significant experience in higher education, entrepreneurial public service, in a not for profit organization or in the private sector.
- Demonstrated ability to lead a self-sustaining organization in higher education, including working with corporate entities or state workforce organizations.
- A history of developing new programs, innovative business and partnership models, the ability to generate enthusiasm for achieving these goals, and a strong record of institutional leadership, collaboration, and the ability to deliver innovative solutions.
- Demonstrated ability in establishing effective working relationships with faculty, government, community and business leaders.
- Deep skills in fiscal analysis, planning and administration of a multi-million dollar budget, and thorough knowledge of the management and operation of academic and professional programs.
- Comprehensive knowledge of the process involved in developing and implementing continuing education programs (i.e., pedagogy, instructor selection, instructional design).
- Evidence of success in advancing diversity and working effectively in a multicultural campus and community setting, and demonstrate the capacity to expand the College's international interests.
- Demonstrated expertise in long-term strategic planning and articulation of a vision that will lead the College to continued growth and world-class excellence.
- Effective communicator and a consensus builder, with the capacity to promote collegiality among staff, students, and the community.

COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

San Diego State University will offer a competitive salary based on the qualifications and experience of the selected candidate.

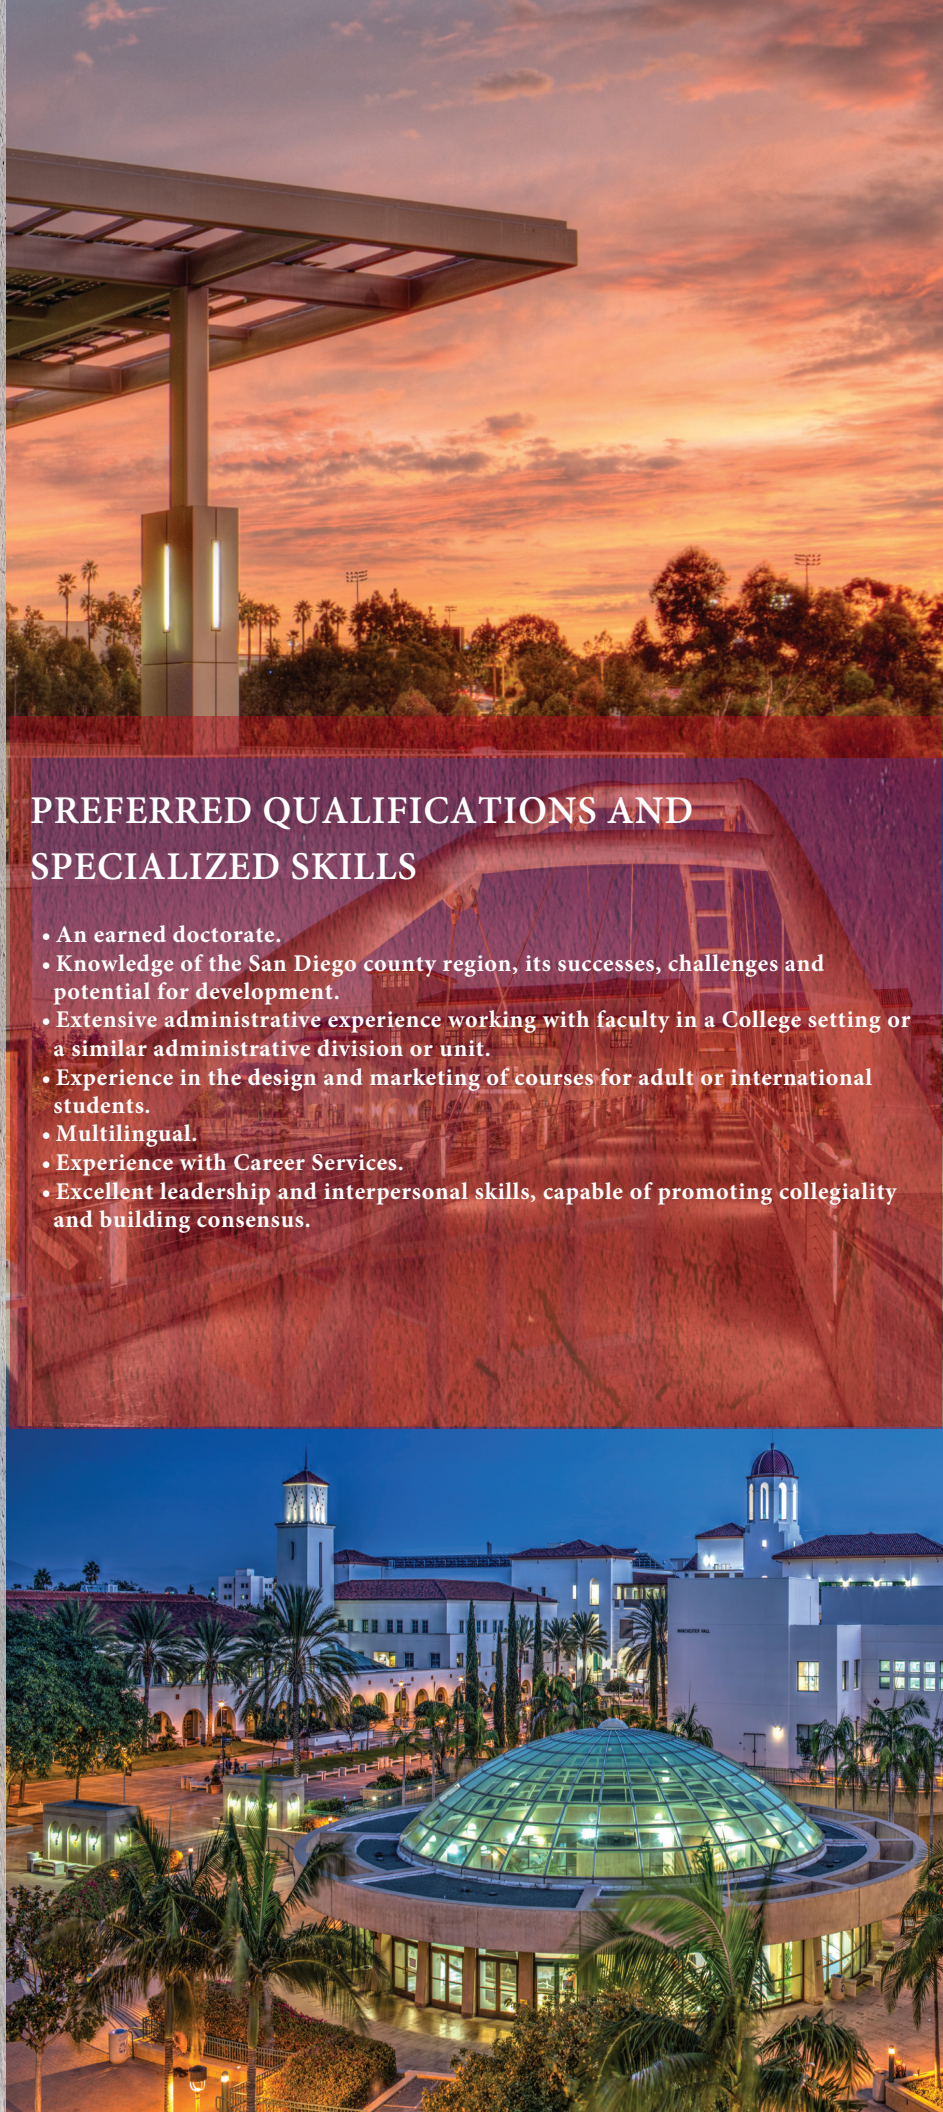

San Diego State University also offers a rich benefits package that includes:

- Extensive leave benefits: 14 paid holidays, 24 vacation days, and 12 sick days per year
- Retirement security through a CalPERS defined benefit pension and retiree healthcare benefits
- An array of health, dental and vision coverage at no- or low-cost to the employee
- California State University system fee reduction program (fee waiver) for employee or qualified dependent

See our benefits page for comprehensive information on our robust benefits package.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS AND SPECIALIZED SKILLS

- An earned doctorate.
- Knowledge of the San Diego county region, its successes, challenges and potential for development.
- Extensive administrative experience working with faculty in a College setting or a similar administrative division or unit.
- Experience in the design and marketing of courses for adult or international students.
- Multilingual.
- Experience with Career Services.
- Excellent leadership and interpersonal skills, capable of promoting collegiality and building consensus.

SAN DIEGO STATE UNIVERSITY

Now in its 121st year, San Diego State University can take pride in more than a century of achievement in education, research and service. SDSU ranks in the top 10 for students studying abroad and for diversity; Forbes, Fortune and U.S. News & World Report rank it top 25 for entrepreneurship; and the university has produced 85 Fulbright student scholars in the past decade. Renowned for its academic excellence, the university is home to top-ranked graduate programs and offers 91 undergraduate majors, 76 master's programs and 23 doctoral degree programs.

HOW TO APPLY

You are encouraged to apply for this opportunity by clicking here, and selecting the Associate Dean posting or searching for Job ID #6894. Upon clicking apply now, applicants will be prompted to provide a resume along with a letter of interest, lists of references, and any additional nomination/application materials as a single document; basic contact information; and a letter of application.

You may contact Catherine Love, Associate Human Resources Director, at clove@sdsu.edu or (619) 594-5248 with any inquiries.

San Diego State University is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate against persons on the basis of race, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity and expression, marital status, disability, pregnancy, medical condition, or covered veteran status.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the California State University (CSU). Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for this position.

