

This Separation Agreement and Release (“Agreement”) is by and between the Board of Trustees of the California State University through San Diego State University (the “University”) and (“Employee”).

As used in this Agreement, “University” includes the Board of Trustees of the California State University and its agents, employees, attorneys, officers, directors, trustees, auxiliary organizations, affiliates, predecessors, successors in interest and assigns, and representatives. The University and Employee are sometimes collectively referred to as the Parties.

Factual Background

Whereas, Employee agrees to voluntarily resign through the Early Exit Program, effective December 30, 2020;

Whereas, the University has conditionally accepted Employee’s application to participate in the Early Exit Program pending the timely execution of this Agreement, per the Terms and Conditions of the Early Exit Program;

Whereas, both the University and Employee desire to settle/avoid any actual or potential differences and disputes of their employment relationship, and wish to avoid the expense, inconvenience, and uncertainty of further proceedings.

Now, in consideration of the foregoing, and of the mutual covenants, commitments, and agreements contained herein, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, University and Employee each acknowledge and voluntarily agree as follows:

Agreement Terms

1. Employee’s Resignation - Employee agrees to voluntarily resign from Employee’s employment with the University, effective December 30, 2020. Employee hereby delivers to the University a signed letter of resignation.
2. The University agrees to accept Employee’s voluntary resignation. The University’s execution of this agreement is deemed acceptance of Employee’s resignation.
3. As a material consideration for the University entering into this Agreement, Employee acknowledges and agrees that Employee’s resignation from all positions of employment with the University is voluntary and will be irrevocable as of the date that this Agreement is signed by both Parties. Further, Employee hereby waives any right Employee may have under any applicable law, regulation, or policy to revoke or rescind Employee’s resignation.

As a further material consideration for the University entering into this Agreement, to the extent Employee has any applicable retreat rights, Employee agrees to waive any such retreat rights.

Nothing in this provision prohibits Employee from applying for another position with the University in the future.

4. Severance Benefit - Within thirty (30) days of Employee’s last day of employment with the University, the University shall pay Employee the amount of $$$, less all appropriate payroll deductions. This amount represents fifty (50) percent of the calculated separation package per the terms of the Early Exit Program. Employee will receive a final release before their last day of employment and will receive the final fifty (50) percent of the calculated separation package after signing and executing that final document. The separation payment shall be paid in one lump sum. Employee understands and agrees that the Severance Benefit described in this Agreement exceeds what Employee is otherwise entitled, and such payment is in exchange for executing this Agreement and complying with the terms and provisions herein. Employee acknowledges that this severance benefit is not considered reportable to CalPERS nor will it be included in the calculation of CalPERS retirement benefits.

5. Tax Indemnification - Employee agrees that neither Employee nor Employee’s attorneys have relied on any representations as to the tax consequences of this Agreement. Employee further agrees that if any taxing authority determines that any part of the Agreement is taxable, Employee will be solely responsible for all such taxes, and that Employee shall indemnify and hold harmless the University from liability to any tax authority, and from any claims made in any administrative or judicial action to collect taxes from the University. If a proceeding is instituted against the University, the University will give Employee notice of the proceedings at Employee’s last known address, and Employee will be obligated to defend and indemnify the University.

6. General Release and Waiver of Claims -

A. Employee hereby waives and fully releases and forever discharges the University from any and all claims, causes of action, complaints, damages, agreements, suits, attorney’s fees, loss, cost or expense, obligations and liabilities, of whatever kind or character, any statutory claims, or any and all other matters of whatever kind, nature or description, whether known or unknown, occurring prior to the date of the execution of this Agreement, which Employee may have against the University, by reason of or arising out of or concerning Employee’s employment with the University. Employee acknowledges and agrees that Employee’s release of claims specifically includes, but is not limited to, any retreat rights, as well as any and all claims under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. section 2000 et seq.; the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, 29 U.S.C. section 621 et seq. Employee understands and acknowledges that the consideration provided for in this Agreement is in full and complete settlement of all claims of any kind, whether known or unknown, actual or potential, which Employee may have against the University in connection with Employee’s employment, working conditions, and any other conduct of the Parties occurring prior to the date of the execution of this Agreement.

- B. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prohibit Employee from filing a charge with or participating in any investigation or proceeding conducted by the EEOC or a comparable state or local agency. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Employee agrees to waive Employee’s right to recover monetary damages in any charge, complaint, or lawsuit filed by Employee or by anyone else on Employee’s behalf based on events occurring prior to the date of the execution of this Agreement, which Employee may have against the University, by reason of or arising out of or concerning Employee’s employment with the University.
- C. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as waiving any entitlement to any compensation Employee may have under any applicable Collective Bargaining Agreement that is earned by Employee on or before Employee’s last day of employment with the University.

- D. Notwithstanding Employee’s full and complete settlement of all claims of any kind is provided in Section 6 of the Agreement, nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prohibit Employee from reporting an alleged violation of or participating in any investigation or proceeding conducted in accordance with CSU’s Executive Order 1096 or Executive Order 1097.
