San Diego State University

College of Sciences

Department of Computer Science

Lecturer of Computer Science

(Full-Time or Part-Time)

The Department of Computer Science is seeking a non-tenure track, full-time or part-time lecturer. Candidates are expected to teach several computer science core courses (e.g., Data Structures, Principles of Programming Languages, Compiler Construction, etc.) and some elective courses. They are also expected to provide advising services to our undergraduate students. Candidates with a Ph.D. degree in Computer Science or closely related areas are preferred, but exceptional candidates with a MS degree in Computer Science or closely related areas will also be considered. Candidates should have demonstrated evidence of good communication skills and a passion for teaching undergraduate students.

SDSU is a large, diverse, urban university and Hispanic-Serving Institution with a commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusive excellence. Our campus community is diverse in many ways, including race, religion, color, sex, age, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, pregnancy, medical condition, and covered veteran status. We strive to build and sustain a welcoming environment for all. SDSU is seeking applicants with demonstrated experience in and/or commitment to teaching and working effectively with individuals from diverse backgrounds and members of underrepresented groups.

To apply, submit cover letter, curriculum vitae and teaching statement to Teresa Couri at tcouri@sdsu.edu. The review process will start on May 1, 2018 and will continue until the position is filled.

Salary is commensurate with experience.

The person holding this position is considered a “mandated reporter” under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

SDSU is a Title IX, equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate against persons on the basis of race, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity and expression, marital status, age, disability, pregnancy, medical condition, or covered veteran status.
