

DEPARTMENT OF MANAGEMENT

PART-TIME and TEMPORARY LECTURER POOL

The Management Department is accepting applications for its pool of part-time and temporary lecturers to teach in the following areas: strategic management, entrepreneurship, business ethics, organizational behavior, and human resource management. Qualified applicants should have a minimum of a Master's degree in strategic management, entrepreneurship, business ethics, organizational behavior, human resource management or a related field, with teaching experience at the university level. Salary commensurate with credentials and experience according to University policy. Submit letter of application with vitae and three letters of recommendation to Chair, Management Department, San Diego State University, San Diego, CA 92182.

Beginning August 3, 2015 CSU has a background check policy for all new employees.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

SDSU is a large, diverse, urban university and Hispanic-Serving Institution with a commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusive excellence.
